

Have you visited a food bank or pantry recently? Do you believe that food is a human right?

Consider participating in the Right to Food Roundtable Sessions!

Northwest Harvest wants to hear from community members about how we can end hunger and what a human right to food could look like in our community. From May - July, we will be hosting 2-hour group discussions in the following locations:

- Centralia
- Colville
- Goldendale
- Ocean Park
- Ritzville
- Wenatchee
- Clarkston
- Omak
- Quincy
- Walla Walla

This opportunity is open to all individuals who are currently experiencing hunger or food insecurity. Selected participants will receive a $120 Visa gift card for their time and effort. Childcare stipend may be available.
