

Last year in the state of Washington:

- 1 in 7 residents received SNAP benefits
- SNAP benefits pumped about $1.5 Billion into the state economy
- 62% of SNAP participants are in families with children

Dear _____,

In 2016, SNAP kept 3.6 million struggling individuals out of poverty. Yet funding for essential needs programs, including SNAP, are at risk of trillions in cuts in order to fund trillions in deficit-raising tax cuts. Shredding our safety net hurts all of us because...

Quotes from the Food Bank:

“I am fearful to this of what we would do without these programs. We would be forced to eat very unhealthily. My children would not be thriving the way that they currently are.”

—Amber, mother of 2 young children

“[SNAP] literally keeps me off the street, keeps me alive. It saves my life.”

—Vinnie, fast food worker
